Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur Desperate to locate a missing person, Constance Twist decides to call a detective agency. Waiting for directory assistance while muttering to herself about karma, Constance jots down the address for the Carr-Maah Consulting Agency. On the way to the agency, Constance is shoved into traffic and nearly killed.Celeste Carr is shocked when Constance storms into the office, demanding help. Celeste tries to explain that Carr-Maah is a human resources consulting company, not a detective agency. Celeste grits her teeth when her mysterious business partner, Ericka Maah, overrules Celeste and forces her to take Constance's case.The killer rectifies the earlier error. Constance is brutally murdered as she leaves the agency. Several hundred miles away, Jose is a restaurant manager and former agency employee. He helped Sonora escape her abusive husband by giving her a job and an apartment. After she unexpectedly flees, Jose finds a hefty online reward for a lost dog. The posting shows Sonora in the photograph with the missing dog. Jose follows Sonora's trail back to his hometown and the Carr-Maah Consulting Agency. Celeste, Ericka, and

Jose, assisted by Hobart, the mysterious homeless man forced by Ericka to become the agency's office manager, investigate Constance's murder and Sonora's disappearance. The clues lead them to a surfeit of viable suspects. With a voice heated by the South African sun, Christoph Metre is the charismatic head of the rival consulting agency. Obsessed with the exotic Ericka, Christoph appears with his entourage in unexpected places, including the murder scene. Lovesick Mrs. Grant, in a one-sided relationship with Mr. Crispie, hated it when Constance offered the spry widower lemonade with a Twist. Dr. Britta Spartan, head of the domestic violence shelter, writhes around Hobart like a predatory boa constrictor around a juicy mouse. If Celeste and her friends can't solve the mystery in time, they'll be the next victims. Biographie de l'auteur KINDLE SCOUT WINNER Jada Ryker snagged the Kindle Press publishing contract for her new book, Take the Body and Run, through s Kindle Scout program. The contemporary mystery/romance is about a hunted woman hiding under a dead friend's identity, a handsome lawman, a death doctor with fart machine-will travel, and a cranky cat with a nose for crime. Jada is the author of Dog Days of Karma, the first Carr - Maah Consulting mystery/paranormal novel; A Pink Zombie, with a Mist, a Shaken, Not Stirred, mystery/horror adventure; and Murder Takes a Dare, the first book in the Takes a Dare mystery series. The books combine humor and murder in a total package of entertaining and fun southern adventures. At the same time, Jada sketches in addiction/recovery issues and childhood angst with a deft and compassionate touch. Jada spent the first twenty-odd years of her life in rural Kentucky, many of those years without electricity or running water. In her writings, Jada draws upon her early years of deprivation. Now, she lives in central Kentucky with her wonderful husband and their cat, rescued from the animal shelter. In her day job, Jada works in higher education. She holds a masters degree in public administration. Jada's mystery adventures are available on in electronic and paperback formats.
