Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurDo angels, apparitions, strange creatures and ethereal beings really exist? We know of our world, however what do we know about the spiritual realm, outer dimensions, and astral planes? Where is heaven and hell, and what resides there? Many people see angels, demons, ghosts and spirits...but how can this be?A Paradox is a statement or proposition that seems contradictory or absurd, nonetheless...expresses the possibility of truth. Angels are messengers who convey God's will...sent to guide and protect us. An apparition is the inexplicable appearance of a ghost, a spirit, entity or a demon. Visions, premonitions, prophecies and inexplicable phenomena continue to unify mankind in the difficult effort to understand and explain what is happening in our world. A team of Paranormal Researchers, an Association for the Scientific Research of Phenomena and a group of Quantum Physicists search for answers in the region known as the Bermuda Triangle where many strange occurrences have been documented. However these unnatural events are now being reported around the world. A young Romanian girl disappears right before the eyes of her priest. Soon diverse religions are involved including the Roman Catholic diocese, the Navajo Dine' and Haitian Voodooists who implore the Loa, spirits and Saints for knowledge and guidance. A fisherman who lost his brother at sea fifteen years ago, hears his brother's voice calling to him from an aperture in the sky. Dr. Brenda Highland ...a paranormal psychologist, unknowingly opens a portal to another dimension and unleashes strange beings into our world. A Voodoo Asogwe (priest) and a Navajo Hatalli (medicine man) join forces in their knowledge of spiritualism and mysticism to gain insight as to what these unnatural occurrences mean to the Earth and all that inhabit it. Gateways open, dimensions overlap, and worlds collide. What will become of man and his very existence? What will happen if beings from these other dimensions invade our world? The message from beyond our reality is clear. Man must unify to understand.

"For in the lived truth of Creation and the Mystique of the Universe and its forces...there is the unspoken terror and fear, of everything above, beneath, beyond, and within!Prsentation de l'diteurDo angels, apparitions, strange creatures and ethereal beings really exist? An only child, she spent a lot of time reading and writing stories for amusement. She had a few short stories and poems published in high school and college. After she married and became a mother, she amused her daughters with stories that she made up. Victoria and her family moved to Tennessee in 1994. She continued to write short stories and poems just for fun. Her first epic novel, "To Risk Extinction" was published in 2012, followed by "Liaisons: Meeting Connecting Committing...Until Death" in 2013. Classified as a mystery suspense writer, Victoria has written her first of a three book science fiction series, "Paradoxical." Victoria is an avid reader of all genres, however she admits to being a science-fiction, fantasy fan. Her hobbies include swimming, reading, and walking the dog through the beautiful parks in her area. Foremost in her life is her love for her family, and spending time with family and friends.
